Villa Puput 58 has been conceived as a contemporary sanctuary, where modern architecture with clean lines and exposed concrete blends seamlessly into the Mediterranean landscape. With 484 m<sup>2</sup> of built area, the villa offers 4 en-suite bedrooms, each designed to ensure privacy, comfort, and an exceptional living experience. Every detail has been carefully selected: Large-format porcelain flooring 100×100 cm Interior doors in natural oak Premium finishes conveying solidity, elegance, and timelessness The heart of the home is a spectacular open-plan living space of nearly 70 m<sup>2</sup>, integrating living room, dining area, and kitchen, seamlessly connected to the outdoor terraces. The space culminates in a “Nature Bali” gresite swimming pool, creating the perfect setting for relaxation, leisure, and contemplation, always with maximum privacy. Security is ensured through a comprehensive alarm and video surveillance system, provi...
