Residencial The Ten is an exclusive new development of 10 premium apartments located in a privileged area of Guardamar del Segura, offering serene views of a pine and eucalyptus forest, with the sea in the background. The building stands out for its contemporary architecture and cutting-edge engineering, combining high efficiency with elegant design. Each apartment has been thoughtfully designed with attention to comfort and functionality. The interiors reflect a high standard of quality, featuring underfloor heating in the bathrooms and kitchen, thermal-acoustic insulation, and energy-efficient systems including athermal technology for heating, cooling, and hot water. Smart home automation adds to the comfort and ease of everyday living. Large windows ensure natural light throughout the day thanks to their east-facing orientation, and every window looks out onto the street—no interior courtyards. The apartments come with underground parki...
